

Perryburg Journal.

F. J. OHLINGER, Editor. FRIDAY, DECEMBER 4, 1886. REPUBLICAN TICKET.

Remember, that on Tuesday next the special election takes place for a Senator to represent the 33d District in the Ohio Senate.

THE SENATORIAL ELECTION. On Tuesday next, the special election for State Senator to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Hon. James C. Hall, takes place.

BATTLE WITH THE INDIANS. General Custer has struck a powerful blow on the Indians. On the morning of the 21st of November, he surprised the camp of the chief Black Kettle, and his warriors, 200 in all.

DESTRUCTION BY VEDEVINS. Mount Vesuvius has again broken into an eruption which is very imposing, threatening an increasing violence. All the cones of the volcano emit a constant and violent stream of large quantities of lava.

Tribute to the Memory of Hon. Jas. C. Hall. The Ohio Legislature has adjourned until the 10th of January. Before its adjournment, Mr. Gossard offered in the Senate the following resolutions upon the death of Hon. James C. Hall.

Resolved, That we testify by this exalted character for pure patriotism and ability, and perfect integrity, and shall ever remember him as a noble example of modesty, manly frankness and Christian courtesy.

Resolved, That the Senate do adjourn. Messrs. Custer, Herndon and Brooks pronounced merited and eloquent eulogies upon the life and public services of the deceased, which were ordered to be read upon the journal.

Official Vote of Ohio for President. The following is the official vote in Ohio, for President, November 8, 1886, as compared with the official vote for Secretary of State, October 13, 1885.

Table with columns for County, Name, and Votes. Lists candidates for President and Secretary of State across various counties like Adams, Allen, Ashland, etc.

LETTER NO. 3. In looking over a last year's Almanac we find Christmas comes on the 25th of December, and New Year on the 1st of January, and we hereby notice that we expect to make arrangements with the State of Ohio for the year 1887.

THE NEW YORK TRIBUNE has been informed of a good practical job which the Ohio Democrats have played on themselves.

LIBRARY NOTICES.

The new illustrated edition of Webster's Dictionary containing three thousand engravings, is the best book for every day that has been published in the present century.

DEPARTMENT OF THE YOUNG AMERICAN. This favorite juvenile periodical enters upon its third year, greatly enlarged and improved. It is the most varied, and, in many respects, the best of all the juveniles, and will repay the investment of the small amount required for its possession.

Peter's Magazine. This is the most brilliant and readable of all the magazines published in America. It is an admirable one, a Pilgrimage upon the Rhine, in verse, is very handsomely illustrated by Charles W. Carter.

ALL ABOUT! About the conductor, as the train of living freight moves heavily on. "All Hall" abouts the way, for he is a true friend, a true friend, a true friend.

THE WICKEDEST MAN. An exchange, after naming the trades and the number of the wicked man, finally settles upon the one in the line of the "wickedest man" who is found in any of our cities.

THE Electoral College met on Wednesday at the general State Capitol, in Columbus, Ohio, and was organized by the death of DAVID TOLP.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.
